

Let's Create a Culture of Everyday Evangelism in Just One Year!

You've tried the programs. You've hosted the events. You've preached the sermons. And still, evangelism feels like something only a few people do, if anyone.

But what if it didn't have to be that way?

This 12-month partnership is designed for churches like yours—churches that long to see evangelism become a natural, joyful part of everyday life for every believer.

It's not another event or initiative. It's a culture shift. One that sticks.

Let's reignite the evangelistic heartbeat of your church together.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What makes this different from other evangelism programs we've tried?

- This isn't a program. It's a yearlong culture shift. Rather than adding another event to your calendar, this partnership integrates evangelism into the DNA of your church. We focus on mindset, systems, leadership, and habits that produce long-term fruit, not short-term hype.

What results should we expect by the end of the year?

- While every church context is different, you can expect:
 - A noticeable increase in personal evangelism across your congregation
 - A team of leaders equipped to champion ongoing outreach
 - A sustainable framework to keep the momentum going for years to come
 - A stronger sense of missional unity and confidence within your church

Who leads this, and what are their qualifications?

- This partnership is led by Andrew Steier, founder of Always Going and author of Always Going: The Joyful Overflow of Everyday Evangelism. Andrew has years of experience equipping churches, preaching, and coaching ministry leaders in various contexts. He brings a balance of pastoral warmth and practical strategy, rooted in gospel clarity.

Will this take a lot of my staff's time?

- Not at all. We work with your existing structure to minimize overload and maximize impact. You decide how to use the consultation hours—whether that's staff coaching, leadership development, sermon planning, or volunteer mobilization. We tailor the pace to your church's bandwidth.

What happens after the 12 months are over?

- By the end of the year, your church will have:
 - A growing culture of everyday evangelism
 - Trained leaders equipped to multiply
 - Resources and rhythms that can be repeated and scaled
- You won't be dependent on us long-term. Our goal is to equip you to keep going without us.

Is the pricing flexible?

- We've built the tiered pricing to reflect church size and keep the partnership accessible. If finances are a concern, let's talk. In some cases, grants, missions budgets, or partner support can help offset costs.

Do we have to use all 48 hours and all 3 visits?

- No—these are maximums, not requirements. The hours and visits are there to serve you. Some churches use every minute; others spread them out based on need. We'll develop a rhythm that works best for your context.

Is this the right fit for our church?

- If your church is hungry for a fresh move of God, tired of pursuing evangelism alone, and open to walking in humility and unity, we'd love to talk. You don't have to be perfect, polished, or high capacity. Just willing and expectant.
